FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN BUSINESS OWNERS (NAWBO)- CLEVELAND,
NAMES RENEE SINGLETON OF SINGLETON & PARTNERS, LTD., AS ONE OF THE 2009
TOP TEN WOMEN BUSINESS OWNERS OF NORTHEAST OHIO

Cleveland - March 19, 2009 - Singleton & Partners, LTD., founder and president, Renee Singleton has been selected along with nine women business owners as the 2009 Top Ten Women Business Owners of Northeast Ohio by the National Association of Women Business Owners (NAWBO) of Cleveland, Ohio.

Singleton branched out on her own in 2002, after more than 20 years in the marketing and broadcast media industries in Cleveland and Atlanta. Her vision in forming Singleton & Partners was to establish a full-service marketing firm, which commits to creating partnerships between mainstream America and its many diverse communities. Focusing on multicultural audiences, primarily the African American, Hispanic and Asian communities, it strives to create innovative campaigns tailored to each audience's uniqueness. In 2008, Singleton joined The Presidents' Council; a business group of chief executive officers from many of Ohio's largest African American owned-and-operated companies.

This year marks the 15th anniversary that NAWBO-Cleveland will be honoring women that have excelled as a woman business owner. Recipients of this prestigious award were chosen by an independent panel of judges based on the following qualifications: female ownership in a for-profit organization, as well as, contribution on a daily basis to the operations of their business.

NAWBO-Cleveland was recognized as a national chapter in 1992. The organization was formed by a group of Cleveland women business owners whose vision is to propel women entrepreneurs into economic, social and political spheres of power worldwide.

The 2009 Top Ten Women Business Owners of Northeast Ohio will be honored on Wednesday, April 22, 2009, at 5:30pm at Landerhaven in Mayfield Heights, Ohio.
